McMan Youth, Family, and Community Services

~HELP MAKE A DIFFERENCE~

Edmonton's Family Intervention Services Program Requires: FAMILY TIME COACH's (FT and PT)

Details: As a Family Time Coach you will provide fully engaging supervised and/or supported visits with children, siblings and their parents/caregivers. This service provides the opportunity for children with mental health disorders and complex behaviours to be picked up from their current home and transported by vehicle to a scheduled visitation location in the community. While in the vehicle, the Coach will utilize appropriate early childhood development activities to build a strong, healthy relationship with children and support their development during the transition to and from the visitation with the parents/guardians. During the visits the Family Time Coach will be a facilitator of a safe and supportive learning environment for children and their parents/guardians to work on their relationship and potential reunification.

Hours: Currently looking to hire for full-time and part-time positions
